NEW YORK CAMPFIRE.

Change in the Date of the Big Reception to Commander-in-Chief Warner.

The following circular has been issued by the committee having in charge the Grand Army poraion of the proposed celebration of the anniversary of Washington's Inauguration, which will be held of his settlement may deem right and proper. This in New York city April 30;

BROOKLYN, April 3, 1889. COMMANDER AND COMMADES: At the last regular meeting of this committee, held Saturday evening. March 30, 1889, 68 Posts were represented, 45 by delegates and 23 by letter. It was voted to proceed with the arrangements for the reception on the date first named, but with an earnest desire to reconcile all conflicting interests involved, the Committee of Arrangements, being invested with full power, have since met and decided to hold the reception and Campfire on May 1, commencing at

The proprietor of the Park has succeeded in negotiating a change of dates with the parties who and engaged the grounds for that day, thus placing the committee in a position to do full justice to this

It was demonstrated from the start that to successfully prosecute the plans proposed our organization should be assigned favorable position in the column of parade. With that end in view the committee petitioned the authorities having charge of the military parade, both by letter and resolutions, in which arguments were advanced of the most convincing character in support of our claim fer consideration. Adverse replies being received, a delegation waited upon the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Army and urged our cause, taking blue" had made this Centennial celebration possible, and we were justly entitled to a position following the representatives of the Army and Navy of the United States. In reply the delegation was informed that "the decision of the sub-committee could not be reversed," which assigned the G.A.R.

By the change of date for the Campfire, it seems to the committee that the main objection of many of the comrades against participation (on account of a long and fatiguing march) is removed, and we can now look forward to meeting the Commander-in-Cidef with pleasure. He journeys from the Paeifie Coast to be with us on that day, and a fraternal welcome awaits him. Comrades, we now ask for your hearty co-operation and support in this matter. Refreshments must be provided and necessary expenses paid. All veterans of the war (not yet members of our Order) should be cordially invited and given "a soldier's welcome." The guests of to-day may be the comrades of to-morrow.

The committee kindly ask that the Posts take action at the first Eucampment after the receipt of this circular, and forward the per-capita of 25 cents to the Treasurer, Jos. Hadfield, Junior Vice Com-mander-in-Chief, No. 302 East Broadway, New York city, on or before April 15, the date of the final meeting of the General Comfinal meeting of the General Committee, as all arrangements must be made by that day, Adjutants will please notify the Secretary of the number of comrades who will attend the reception. 5, by command of Franklin M. Drew, Department mander,-E. C. Millikin, A. A.-G.,-contain The Commander gratefully announces to the comrades the generous acts of the last Legislature affecting them and these dependent upon them. The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for the payment of State pensions for the year 1889 and $65,000 for 1890. This was an increase of $50,000. The Legislature also amended the pension law so as to allow a pension to dependent children of deceased soldiers or seamen. The Legislature enses of destitute soldiers and seamen for the year 1889 and $2,000 for 1890. This was an inrease of $1,900. The Legislature appropriated $8,000 for defraying the current expenses of the Bath Millitary and Naval Orphan Asylum for the year 1889 and the same sum for 1890. This was an increase of $1,000. The provisions as amended by chapters 9 and 146 of the Public Laws of 1887, relating to soldiers, were amended so as to include satiors within its provisions, and also to prohibit the support of dependent soldiers or sailors in the poorhouse. Its provisions are so important that the section as amended is given entire, and is as follows: "Section 8. No soldier or sailor who served by enlistment in the army or navy of the United States in the war of 1861, and who has received an honorable discharge from said service, and who has or may become dependent upon any town, shall be considered a pauper, or be subject to disfranchisement for that cause; but the time during which said soldier or sailor is so dependent shall not be included in the period of residence necessary to change his settlement; and overseers of the poor shall not have authority to remove to, or support in the poorhouse, any such dependent soldier or sailor; but the town of his settlement shall support him at his own home in the town of his settlement or residence, or in such suitable place other than the poorhouse as the overseers of the poor of the town section shall not be so construed as to deprive overseers of the poor of any rights to remove and support such dependent soldier or sailor and his family in the town of his settlement as herein pro-Thus it will be seen that the Legislature has most generously responded to the requests made for legislation by our last annual Encampment held at Lewiston. It now remains for the comrades to see to it that our needy comrades and he dependents of deceased comrades receive the ull benefit of this generous and patriotic legislation. Let every Post see to it that the claim of every destitute worthy soldier and sailor, and every worthy estitute widow, father, mother and child of a leceased soldier or sailor is properly prepared and forwarded to the State Pension Clerk, Hon. N. S. Purioton, Augusta. Proper blanks can ordinarily be obtained of the town clerks, but always can be rocured upon application to the State Pension Clerk. The burden of the pension appropriation falls equally upon all sections of the State; its benefits ought to be alike distributed and enjoyed, Let the Posts also see to it that the privileges of the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum are constantly improved to the limits of the Asylum; that the funeral expenses of destitute soldiers and sailors are paid by the cities and towns when private charity is insufficient; and that no soldier or sailor is compelled to go to the poorhouse for support. By thus securing to our destitute com-support and their dependents the full benefits of the Myron M. He returned to pringfield in February, 1862, with Cartis's army, nd was placed on Gen. Carr's staff as a volunteer Aid, by an order from Gen. Curtis, issued the last of February. He took an active part in the battle of Pea Ridge, Ark., where he was wounded, which won for him the commission of Second Lieutenant of the 3d U. S. Cav., that being his first entry into the service. He was ordered to report to Gen. E. A. Carr at Helena, Ark., as Acting Aid, and served in this position through the Vicksburg campaign, when he was promoted to First Lieutenant and Aid on Gen. Carr's staff; was taken sick and or-dered to Springfield, Mo., by Gen. Carr, where be arrived on the 4th day of July, 1863, and immediately commenced the organization of the 2d Ark. Cav., which he completed in eight months, without a dollar of assistance from the State or Government for recruiting funds. After the organization of the regiment he did very hard and laborious service in southwest Missouri and northwest Arkansas, taking an active part in 1861 after Price on his raid through Missouri, where the regiment was ordered twice from the rear of the brigade to the front while in action. On their return to Springfield from this campaign the regiment was given 15 days' rest, when it was ordered to Memphis Cenn., overland, a distance of 275 miles, through the Arkansas swamps. This was a very perilous and hard campaign, in which bridges had to be built and corduroy roads constructed. The march was made in the dead of Winter, without a tent. The regiment did duty in and around Memphis, and was mustered out at Lagrange, Tenn., Aug. 20, 1855, by Special Order, which had been issued by Comrade Phelps's request. He resigned his position in the Regular Army in September, 1865, and was breveted Captain, Major and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Regular Army; also, breveted Briga-dier-General of Volunteers. His civil life began as mail contractor in Missouri in 1865; was appointed Receiver of Public Moneys at Springfield, Mo., by Andrew Johnson, in 1866, and removed by Gen. Hans Powell Post, No. 638, held a largely attended Campfire at their rooms, No. 225 Grand street, New York city, last week. It was principally given as a compliment to the comrades and friends who assisted at the recent annual entertainment and ball of the Post. A bountiful collation was provided, the rooms were crowded, and after due ustice had been done to the eatables, coffee and cigars were in order, and speeches were made by Gen, S. J. Crook and Mr. J. Stewart Wilson, Chairman of the Citizen Committee who recently presented the Post with a silk flag and guidons. Songs, recitations and instrumental music added to make a pleasant and enjoyable Campfire. Comrades were present from Corcoran, Kimball, Dahlgren, Meagher, Strong, Cushing, Frank Head, Goss and other Posts. During the evening Com-rade Scannell, on behalf of the Post, presented to Commander T. H. C. Kincaid a beautiful and valuable diamond-studded gold G.A.R. badge. He will be gard for the safety of their persons and purses gard for the safety of their persons and purses far outweighs their patriotism; who were the Copperheads of war times, and who have been led on and encouraged by the ill-concealed sneers contained in some of the pension-veto messages of our late Chief Magistrate, and who pretend to think that a soldler's wages were such a munificent return for all patriotic services ever rendered.

President Harrison gave utterance to the prevailing public sentiment in his inaugural address when he said that our pension law should give more adequate and discriminating son of this action is to have the Encampment of relief. Many pensioners are poor and largely dependent upon their pensions, and small as the amounts generally are, the difficulty of obtaining them promptly after they become due is an inconvenience that often amounts to a real hardship. Why could not the present law be so amended that those who should apply to the Pension Office for such relief (the necessity for which could be easily established by proper affidavits) could be allowed to sign the pension youcher and duplicate receipts at home in the presence of a witness or witnesses, one of whom could then take them, with the pensioner's certificate, to the proper Magistrate and have them completed. Possession of the pensioner's certificate by a witness known to the Magistrate, and offering to complete the voucher, having the pensioner's signature (a specimen of which, written in the Magistrate's presence, ought to be left in his possession for comparison), ought to be sufficient evidence of the correctness of the transaction. There could be no object in applying for such relief unless it was needed, and the relief would be most welcome - White; P. G., D. M. Smith. This Camp is in a | of a small pension to come to their homes and

If the way indicated is faulty or cumbersome, surely one could and ought to be found not open to any serious objection. It would not cause the expenditure of a dollar of public money, and would be one genuine step in the direction of more adequate relief, and would save to pensioners many dollars that now go into the pockets of storekeepers who give credit while the pensioner is waiting for a chance to get his money, or into the pocket of the Justice who goes to the pensioner's home ward Mullen; First Serg t, George E. Empire Manganese and Iron Company. This Company has several large manganese properties in Cuba, which are open, and from which 2,300 tons of ore has been sold, the ore running from 50 to 60 PERCENT. METALLIC MANGANESE. They are only two miles from a railroad and nine miles from port. Arrangements are now being made to ship large quantities during the coming year, and matters have progressed so well that it is now believed that SHIP MENTS WILL BE MADE INSIDE OF 40 DAYS. The Company can selt all the dre they wish to mine, and from estimates which have been made it is believed that dends of 20 TO 30 PER CENT, can be paid on the par value of the stock. The management will strive to make the property earn even MORE THAN 30 PER CENT.

PER CENT.

Prospecting has gone for enough to satisfy the engineers that the one body is very large in two of the mines; therefore, with good management, there appears to be no good reason why the above estimates may not be realized, or even doubled.

The Company is organized under the laws of New Jersey, capital stock $500,000, par value $10, and there is no liability attached to the stockholders. The Directors are: HO R. R. 35 WALL ST. NEW YORK. W. S. CHAMBERLIN, US BROADWAY, NEW YORK. There is only a limited number of shares to be sold at its par value, $10 per share, and the sale may be stopped t any time. No less than five shares can be issued.
